ASX RELEASE – Wednesday, 14th May 2008

MANACCOM TO PAY MAIDEN DIVIDEND FOLLOWING STRONG GROWTH

Leading Australian IT and e-commerce company, Manaccom Corporation Limited (ASX:MNL) today announced plans to pay a maiden dividend this year following strong growth and robust trading.

The inaugural dividend, representing at least 20% of net profit after tax (NPAT), will be paid as final dividend later this year.

Manaccom said it proposed the payment of both an interim and final dividend in future years – each based on at least 20% of NPAT.

Mr Mike Veverka, CEO of Manaccom, said investors could expect a dividend in October 2008 of about one cent (1.0c) per share if NPAT for the full year to 30 June 2008 is at the upper end of the current guidance ($1.3 to $2.0 million).

“The successful acquisition of Manaccom Pty Ltd in September last year, and robust trading since then, have delivered stability in the Company and this has been the catalyst for our maiden dividend payment,” Mr Veverka said.
