ASX RELEASE – Friday 30 October 2009

Manaccom Board Changes

The Board of Manaccom Corporation Limited (MNL) advises, with regret, that Mr Ian Mackay, Executive Deputy Chairman, has resigned as a Director for personal reasons to pursue his retirement plans. The Board wishes Mr Mackay well for the future and thanks him for his valued contribution to the success of Manaccom Pty Ltd over the last couple of years.

Mr Mackay is the founder of Manaccom Pty Ltd (MPL) that was acquired by the MNL group in 2007. The MPL division publishes and markets popular software titles through large retailers and independent resellers in Australia and New Zealand. Key retail relationships include Harvey Norman, Officeworks and JB Hi-Fi. Products include McAfee Internet Security, Net Nanny and Zone Alarm. Mr Mackay retains a significant shareholding interest in MNL with approximately 21% of the company's shares.

The Board has taken this opportunity to add another non-executive Director to the Board and has appointed Mr Bill Lyne, the group's Company Secretary and member of the Audit Committee, as an additional Director. Mr Lyne is the principal of Australian Company Secretary Service, providing company secretarial, compliance and governance services to public and other companies. He is a past listed company director and is currently secretary of a number of public companies. Mr Lyne holds a Bachelor of Commerce (Economics) degree, is a Chartered Accountant and a Fellow of Chartered Secretaries Australia and the Australian Institute of Company Directors.
