“Jumbo is proud to be associated with a charity of the stature of the Mater Foundation, and its successful Mater Prize Home lottery”, said Mr Mike Veverka, CEO of Jumbo.

“I see significant potential in online ticket sales growth for Mater due to synergies with our existing OzLotteries.com business and various opportunities via our affiliate network, www.jumboaffiliates.com”, he said.

Mr Veverka said Jumbo would redevelop the Mater Prize Home lottery website (www.materprizehome.com.au) as well as begin online promotions with Mater’s existing customer database, Jumbo’s own web properties and other methods to grow ticket sales.

Jumbo receives a percentage of all ticket sales that it generates as well as from current Mater customers that buy their tickets via the website.

About the Mater Foundation

The Mater Foundation is a fundraising body supporting patient care and research at the Mater Hospitals and the Mater Medical Research Institute. The Mater Art Union has been an important fund raiser for the Mater Children's Hospital for the past 46 years. The Art Union also has also recently launched the "Cars for Cancer" lottery to raise funds for Cancer research and treatment.
