Jumbo announces CFO transition

Jumbo Interactive Limited (ASX:JIN) (Jumbo) today announced that Jatin Khosla will be stepping down as Chief Financial Officer to pursue another opportunity.

Jatin will remain with Jumbo for a period to support an orderly transition. Jumbo has a strong and experienced finance leadership team in place, providing continuity through the transition. The Company will commence a process to appoint a new Chief Financial Officer and will provide a further update in due course.

Jumbo Managing Director, CEO and Founder Mike Veverka said "Jatin has made a significant contribution to Jumbo over the past five years and has been a valued member of our leadership team. He has transformed finance and strengthened the Group's financial, capital markets and investor relations capabilities. He has also played an important role in shaping and executing our strategy, including M&A and the continued evolution of the Group."

On behalf of the Board and the broader Jumbo team, I would like to sincerely thank Jatin for his contribution and wish him every success in the next chapter of his career."

About Jumbo Interactive

Jumbo Interactive Ltd (ASX:JIN) brings together technology, creativity, and purpose to deliver winning experiences through digital lotteries and prize draws. Our B2B SaaS platforms and Managed Services power both government and charity fundraising programs, while our B2C brands - including Oz Lotteries, Dream Car Giveaways, and Dream Giveaway - connect millions of customers to life-changing prizes and meaningful causes.

Since 1995, Jumbo has grown from a single-computer start-up into an ASX-listed global group operating across Australia, the United Kingdom, and North America. Today, we're reimagining how people engage with lotteries and prize draws online - making it simpler, more engaging, and more impactful for everyone involved.
